

E&I Engineering Ltd

Sustainability Policy

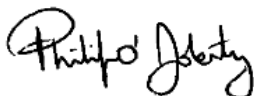

E&I are committed to the principle of sustainability, recognizing that active engagement in social progress, environmental protection and economic balance is necessary for long term development.

The Company will undertake to discharge its statutory duties by addressing & committing to the following objectives:

- Reduce environmental impact wherever possible
- Achieve and maintain high levels of sustainability working that enhances our reputation and those of our customers
- Ensure compliance to all regulations and statutory body's
- Maintain continual improvement against our management systems
- Invest in our employee is, offering training opportunities, rewards and fair contractual arrangements
- Reduce, recycle and re-use where possible
- Seek to reduce carbon emissions, water consumption and energy use across our operations
- Meet our clients requirements and meet and exceed their expectations

This policy will be communicated, implemented, and reviewed as part of E&I ISO 45001:2018 safety, 14001:2015 environmental and 9001:2015 certified Management System.

Signed:

January 2021

Managing Director